(U) Los Angeles – Off-Duty Flight Attendant Becomes Unruly, Forcing Plane from Los Angeles to Land

(U) A cross-country flight from California to Georgia had to be diverted to Oklahoma after a man became unruly and had to be detained by fellow passengers and the flight crew Friday night. Passengers on the flight who witnessed the incident said the man made a strange announcement over the plane's PA system, telling everyone to take their seats and prepare to put on their oxygen masks. That's when they say the disruptive passenger attempted to open the cabin door. Delta Airlines said the man did not try to open the cabin door, but confirmed that the flight crew had to restrain the individual while the pilot diverted to Oklahoma City.

(U) Afghanistan – Afghan ISIS Group Claims Sticky Bomb Attacks

(U) Kabul – The Islamic State in Iraq and ash-Sham's Khorasan Province (ISIS-K) claimed responsibility for bombing two minivans in a mostly Shiite neighborhood in the Afghan capital that killed seven people.

UNCLASSIFIED

Among the dead were two employees of Afghanistan's state-run film company, a colleague said Sunday. In a statement issued late Saturday, ISIS-K said its operatives blew up two minivans carrying "disbeliever Shiites" using sticky bombs. Sticky bombs slapped onto cars trapped in Kabul's chaotic traffic are the newest weapons terrorizing Afghans in the increasingly lawless nation.
